

Turtle Cafe: Every Day

BAR OPEN / BAR CLOSE — STANDING CHECKLIST

Do these every shift, every day. Day-specific jug builds, tea flavors, and special notes are on that day's own page — use both pages together. Check boxes in dry-erase marker; wipe clean after close.

- ☐ Garnishes: check containers (lime, mint, basil, sage) — top up any that are low from food fort. Cut limes in half for squeezing, wedges for garnishes

- ☐ Mix canister of electrolytes OR Gatorade in a white 5 gal for camp

- Cream of coconut is standard for dirty sodas — small squeeze for 0.5oz, big squeeze for 1oz; offer coffee creamer or rice milk if they don't like coconut
- After they order: read the recipe, ask if they want ice, and list options (e.g. salt rim, 'dirty' or not, garnish or not)
- Daily iced teas live in 2g glass containers — pour 6–8oz
- Leftover iced teas in 1 gallon containers
- Daily 'punch' jug in red 10L dispensers

TAROT READINGS — TUESDAY DIVINATION SESSION

Today only: encourage patrons to pull a tarot card before you build their drink. Once they've pulled, make the drink as usual, then hand it over with their card's reading below. Let the reading land on its own — no need to explain it unless they ask.

DRINK	CARD	DIVINATION
Tang Dynasty	The Tangerine Emperor	A throne is waiting for the one willing to claim it. Lead with certainty, and others will follow.
Michelada	The Clam Shell Oracle	A secret will soon reveal itself, but only after you stop demanding certainty from it.
Vanilla Cherry Grove	The Vanilla Cherry Grove	Your next creation needs nourishment, not force. Give it warmth, space, and time to ripen.
Shirley Temple	The Doom Portal	A tempting doorway is opening; enter freely, but do not mistake appetite for destiny.
Orange Cream-sicle	The Orange Comet	Several scattered desires are about to converge into one brilliant opportunity.
A Ginger's Pickle	The Pickle Tower	What shatters tonight was never strong enough to hold the life arriving next.
The Dr's Cream	The Ace of Creams	What spills beyond your control is not always waste. Sometimes abundance must overflow to be recognized.
The Dr's Peach Exam	The Peach Diagnosis	Something you've suspected for weeks is about to be confirmed. Let it be a relief, not a verdict.
Scoby Mule	The Mule of Fortune	Fortune favors movement now. Follow the strange invitation rather than the familiar road.
Thirst Trap	The Citrus Devil	Desire is not your captor until you pretend it has no hold over you.
Clear Cache	The Fermented Hermit	Follow the faintest glow rather than the loudest voice. Wisdom rarely announces itself.
